RE: Supplemental Filing in Support of Amicus Curiae Motion – Graham v. UMG Recordings, Inc., Case No. 1:25-cv-00399

Dear Clerk of Court,

Please find enclosed the Verified Motion for Reconsideration, Supplementation, and Leave to File Amicus Curiae Brief submitted by Joseph Anthony Reyna, a federally documented whistleblower, Pell Grant recipient, and founder of the 501(c)(3) nonprofit Dreams Over Dollars™.

This filing includes Exhibit C: a verified email sent on December 4, 2024 to Sidley Austin LLP, requesting pro bono representation in matters materially overlapping with this litigation. The firm's nonresponse, despite having clients implicated in the patterns described, is submitted not as conjecture, but as part of a larger evidentiary pattern of constructive legal exclusion that now spans law firms, platforms, and procedural records.

This Court is respectfully placed on notice that:

- The original April 2, 2025 amicus filing may have been procedurally filtered or omitted from the docket;
- No federal court to date has acknowledged or ruled on any of the public-interest amicus briefs Movant has submitted, including related filings in Spotify, Live Nation, and DSHS litigation;
- Movant's disclosures are already recognized by federal agencies (IRS, FinCEN, OSHA), and the risk of judicial erasure is no longer hypothetical—it is procedural precedent if unacknowledged.

Movant respectfully requests that this cover letter, exhibit, and motion be docketed promptly and forwarded to the Honorable Judge Jeannette A. Vargas for review, with an indication that oral argument is requested should this motion be opposed or denied.

If additional documents are required or if the Court seeks clarification of any material herein, I remain available and committed to ensuring the full and accurate supplementation of this record.

Thank you for your attention to this matter and your role in upholding the transparency and integrity of the judicial process.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Joseph Anthony Reyna
